This Week

This week, We've had an incredibly busy week. Year 1 visited the Small Heath Park and saw the seasonal changes in Autumn, they saw the beautiful colours of leaves and saw geese in the pond. On Thursday 21st November there was a book sale to raise money to buy costumes for the KS1 Christmas production.

Year 6 students went to a Literacy and Numeracy festival and came second. Well done to them!
Year 4 had guitar lessons and enjoyed it.

On Thursday 14th November, the School Council organized interviews for Year 6 McH to decide whether they can be their chosen teacher. On Friday 22nd November, it was Take-Over Day, Nahiyah and Haadia (Mr Foley and Mrs King) did an assembly at 9:10am. Then the classes were introduced to their new teachers. The school council went through a hard process to make today happen.

During today's assembly, nine children spoke about their visit to the NHS as Junior Volunteers. They talked about choosing wisely. It means choosing a better option for yourself and others. You should not call 999 unless it is a life-threatening emergency. Instead call 111 or your local pharmacist.

Also, On Friday, there has been an Olympics competition. News will come next week. Nahiyah & Haadia

Stay and Read

A reminder that all parents should attend Stay and Read for year 1 and 2 every Friday. It boosts early readers to have more confidence in and out of school. It helps them to learn more words easier than they normally do. We remind you that your child should read every night for 20 minutes. Thank you for support.

Numeracy and literacy Festival

On Thursday 22nd November 2019. Yr 6 and Year 5 went to the University of Birmingham. They started off by warming up and then they went to different stations. A pupil described it was fun, enjoyable and a different opportunity than any others. It was a mix of Maths, English and P.E

After School Clubs

After Christmas, the clubs will be changed. If you have a child who wants to go to a certain club, a letter will be sent out to your children in the next few weeks so you can apply for a club.
