

World Earth Day – Year 5

We really enjoyed writing the letter to the Earth explaining how we work hard to look after it.

We learned that air pollution is bad for your health.

We now know what the word finite means.

We realise that transport causes lots of pollution.

It was a fun day and we loved joining with the other schools for our Zoom call.

The quiz that we took part in was good fun and made us think.

